

As a business owner myself, it is understandable that Major Banks want to have as many ways as possible to contact potential customers, but please DO NOT allow these companies to electronically invade my home. It has been great not having five to ten telemarketers interrupting my evenings EVERY night. Some have called as early as 7:00 AM on Sunday!

Please leave Indiana's telemarketing law stand.

Thank you,
Jerry Seitz